North Square Investments Completes Acquisition of Foundry Partners Through Its CS McKee Affiliate

Chicago, IL (April 28, 2025) – North Square Investments announced it has completed the acquisition of Foundry Partners through its majority-owned affiliate CS McKee. The announcement was made by Mark Goodwin, the Co-Founder and Chief Executive Officer of North Square Investments, who said Foundry Partners will be merged into CS McKee.

An independently owned value-oriented investment adviser established in September of 2012 and officially commencing operations as of February 1, 2013, Foundry Partners manages a variety of equity strategies that fill multiple areas within the capitalization spectrum.

“Foundry Partners has an outstanding reputation as a high-quality equity investment manager with continuity and experience, which greatly complements North Square’s existing business and will be accretive to CS McKee’s respective goals for growth” Goodwin said. The acquisition is expected to add approximately $2.3 billion to CS McKee’s assets under management.

Goodwin also announced that following a transition period after the completion of the acquisition CS McKee President Mark Gensheimer would be retiring from the firm later this year, and Timothy Ford, President and Chief Executive Officer of Foundry Partners, would assume the post of Chief Executive Officer of CS McKee.

“Mark’s 44-year career in the investment industry has included over 20 years of experience at CS McKee, most recently as the firm’s President for more than 15 years,” Goodwin said. “It’s been a long and successful journey for Mark, as he led the firm through several turbulent market cycles, as well as the acquisition by North Square Investments in 2020. We are incredibly grateful for Mark’s leadership as he built on the firm’s long history and track record and positioned CS McKee for future growth, and we congratulate Mark on his well-deserved retirement from the firm,” he said.

“Timothy Ford’s first job in the investment industry was with CS McKee,” Goodwin continued, “and we now welcome Tim back to take the reins from Mark as head of the firm.”

“The talented and experienced team of Foundry investment professionals have built a distinguished track record and played a key role in the success of the firm,” Ford said. “As we now integrate Foundry Partners into CS McKee, we are extremely pleased to be maintaining continuity for our clients, with no changes to our investment processes. We are also delighted to join CS McKee, a highly respected and reputable institutional money manager, and we are very excited about this next chapter of our firm’s evolution.”

In reaching the agreement, North Square Investments and CS McKee received legal advice from Kirkland & Ellis, and Foundry received legal advice from Buchanan Ingersoll & Rooney PC.
